

The Country is Saved!

People in this vicinity are indeed fortunate in raising big crops this season, but they are equally fortunate in having a place to buy

Good Goods Cheap!

There is one place in Baxter Spr'gs where you can buy anything in the Boot and Shoe line at away less than anywhere else. That place is who have just received a large invoice of new Boots and Shoes and will be compelled to put up new shelving to hold them.

They Have a $6,000 Stock of Footwear!

and you can find anything you may want, from a cheap plow shoe to the finest dress shoe made.

Their stock of fine Dress Goods is the largest and most complete of any in the city, while their line of Parasols and Umbrellas embraces all the newest and latest novelties.

They have given especial attention to the Gents' Furnishing Goods departments, and have the largest and best stock of Overalls, Shirts, Jumpers, Jeans Pants, Fine Pants, etc., ever shown in this city.

Their prices are at the bottom and their goods are all new, not having been offered for sale at retail anywhere except in Baxter Springs.

When you need anything in their line give them a call and save a dollar, or, possibly, two.

A WHOLESALE HOUSE.

It may be news to a great many of our people that Baxter Springs is to have a wholesale grocery establishment in the very near future, but the News man, together with two or three others, has known of it for some time. A gentleman up to snuff in the grocery business from--well, never mind the place, now--has signified his intention of coming to Baxter and erecting a brick building 25x125 feet, with basement of same size. He will put in a large and complete stock of groceries which will be sold at wholesale. He can obtain the same freight rate here over the Memphis that Joplin enjoys over that line and consequently can and will do some business, lots of business in fact.

In connection with the establishment will be a large retail department, and better still, the aforesaid wholesale man will buy potatoes, onions, cabbage, etc., for other markets.

The NEWS hopes to be able in a few days to divulge all the particulars in the case, but at present cannot.

That such an institution could be made a glittering success here there is no doubt and that such an institution would be a blessing to this part of the country there is no question. "Hide out little ones, dad's comin'."

THE COLLEGE.

The furniture and supplies for the Baxter Springs Normal and Business College have arrived. The furniture and desks will be set up and placed in position in a few days. It was bought in Grand Rapids, Michigan, and is of first class make and style. The upper part or study room of the college, will be furnished with single seats and desks. The recitation rooms downstairs will be furnished with opera chairs with tablet arm attachment, and the business department will be furnished with tables and chairs. The business office will contain modern furniture.

The building has been remodeled inside, the walls and ceilings have been papered and the woodwork re-painted. A nice curtain hangs at each window in the building and everything about the building is neat and tidy.

The fall term of this institution will begin Monday, Sept. 10, and there will be a large enrollment of students.

The courses of study will embrace everything necessary in a complete normal and business college and the faculty is made up as follows: J. H. Browning, L. I. and A. B. President.

C. S. Bowman (University of Illinois), Professor of English and Natural Sciences.

S. J. Lewis, B. L. and A. M., Professor of Philosophy and Modern Languages.

Prof. Lon L. Fox, (Mahoney Business and Shorthand Institute), Superintendent of Business Department.

Mrs. N. A. Lyman, Teacher of Art. Miss Madge E. Lyman, Assistant Teacher of Art.

Miss Kate Burgess, (Joplin Conservatory of Music) Teacher of Instrumental Music.

Chas. Lieberknecht, (Joplin Conservatory of Music) Teacher of Vocal Music and Violin.

The lawn will be mowed and cleaned up in a few days, and as soon as the furniture is set up and placed in position a grand reception will probably be given so that our people may have an opportunity of seeing what the Baxter Springs Normal and Business College building looks like.

Mark our prediction, the fellows who kicked against the college enterprise will be kicking themselves within sixty days, for the Baxter Springs Normal and Business College will be a grand success and a credit to the town, and don't you forget it.

GIBBONS-WEAVER.

Married, on Wednesday, July 25, 1894, at Galena, by Rev. J. P. Witt, Mr. James W. Gibbons to Miss Emma O. Weaver, both of this city. The NEWS congratulates. The following is from the Galena Times: "It is becoming quite fashionable for young couples to drive up in front of Rev. J. P. Witt's residence, call him from the house and command him to marry them on the spot. The last pair to participate in such an adventure were James W. Gibbons and Miss Emma O. Weaver, both of Baxter Springs. They were thus married Wednesday evening."

Galena Republican: Wednesday evening about 7 o'clock James W. Gibbons and Miss Emma O. Weaver drove up to the residence of Rev. J. P. Witt and presenting a license asked to be united in marriage. Bro. Witt invited them to come into the house, but they declined to do so and requested him to tie the knot then and there. Summoning witnesses he proceeded to do so and with a whoa, jined, get up, the whole thing was done and the happy couple, who gave their address as Baxter Springs, continued their journey in double instead of single harness.

WHAT A RAIN!

The rain which began falling here Saturday night and continued until noon Sunday was one of the heaviest that has ever fallen in this vicinity at this time of year. Fully three inches of water fell during the eighteen hours the rain lasted and it helped out considerably the already insured big corn crop.

This section of Kansas has been exceedingly fortunate this year. Good rains have always fallen just when they were needed and the consequence is crops are big, with a big B. Parties in the East who contemplate moving to the West can find no better place than Cherokee county, and especially that section immediately adjacent to Baxter Springs, to locate.

Cherokee county farms are worth lots of money these days.

THE HORSE RACE.

The quarter of a mile race last Saturday between S. A. Blanchard's bay mare and Wm. Johnson's gray colt was witnessed by about 1,000 people. The race was run on a straight track made especially for the purpose. The two horses had been in training for about three weeks and were in the pink of condition. Some time was spent in getting the horses started and when they finally got away the Johnson colt was in the lead and stayed there all the way through, winning by about 30 feet. There are several sore sports in town.

FIRST OF AUGUST.

The Emancipation celebration held here on Wednesday, August 1, by the colored people, was a grand affair. The Weir City cornet band furnished the music and Hon. S. S. Kirkpatrick, M. F. Compton and others delivered orations during the day. There was a large attendance, big delegations coming from Joplin, Galena, Columbus, Cherokee, Weir City, Girard, Pittsburg and other places. The crowd was orderly and nothing happened to mar the pleasure of the day.

TAKEN UP.

On July 27, 1894, one brown horse, weight about 1650 lbs., age 11 years or more, blind in both eyes, 4 white feet. Also one bay horse about the same age, weight about 1000 lbs. No marks noticed. For further particulars apply to T. C. Covey on the farm adjoining water tank, northwest of Baxter Springs, Kansas.

If you want a set of knives and forks, a first class pocket knife, a better pair of shears or scissors than is usually kept for sale, go direct to J. J. Fribley and be suited.

LIFE IS OVER.

One of the most sudden deaths that ever occurred in this vicinity was that of Lewis Hunter, who died at his late home one mile south of this city on Wednesday, August 1, 1894, at 10:15 o'clock p. m.

In the morning of that day Mr. Hunter was feeling first rate and appeared to be in his usual health. His son, J. A. Hunter, drove out from town about 9 o'clock to see his parents and for about an hour Mr. Hunter and his wife and children chatted pleasantly. About 10 o'clock Mr. Hunter went out to the garden and got some corn for dinner and then went back to cut some corn for his calves. When dinner was ready the bell was rung, but Mr. Hunter failed to put in an appearance. His daughter, Miss Julia, went out to see what was the matter and found her father sitting up against an apple tree. He was cold and perspiration was standing out all over him. Miss Julia called her mother and some others and got Mr. Hunter into the house. While Mr. Hunter was in the garden his son had come to town, but he was sent for at once. Mr. Hunter refused to have a physician called until about 3 o'clock, when he finally consented. A physician was summoned who stayed with Mr. Hunter until 7:30 o'clock, at which time he seemed to be resting easily. A little after 10 o'clock he asked for a glass of milk, which was given him by his son, who noticed a change for the worse and immediately started to town again for the physician. He had been gone only about five minutes, however, when the old gentleman fell asleep, never to wake again in this world.

Mr. Hunter, unknown to his wife and children, had been suffering with heart trouble for about two months, but not until he was taken down did he tell them about it. Heart trouble was the cause of his death.

Lewis Hunter was born November 14, 1817, at Buck Creek, Champaign county, Ohio, where he lived until 1867, when he moved to Missouri. He lived there three years and then moved to Kansas, settling at Baxter Springs. He was married in 1855 at Urbana, Ohio, to Rebecca Cadden. Mr. Hunter was a harness maker by trade and for a number of years worked at the trade in this city, finally removing to his farm south of town. He was a member of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city, and no man could say aught against him.

He leaves, besides his wife, five children to mourn his death. They are Mrs. C. N. Mitchell of Mechanicsburg, Ohio, Mrs. Ed. Arthur of Fort Scott, Kan., Misses Julia and Rebecca Hunter of this city and James A. Hunter of the firm of Hunter & Burge of this city. They have the sympathy of all in their bereavement, but the husband and father had lived more than the allotted three score years and ten--and who can ask more?

Funeral services will be held at the residence this (Saturday) morning at 10 o'clock, after which the remains will be laid away in the family vault in the city cemetery.
